

EVS Week 2024 Quiz

1. What are some common ways to protect yourself and others from pathogens?
  - a. Proper hand hygiene
  - b. Products that are EPA-registered for health care
  - c. Appropriate PPE
  - d. All of the above
2. Which of these correctly describes a difference between resilient and non-resilient floors?
  - a. Resilient flooring is always made of synthetic products and non-resilient flooring is always made of natural ones
  - b. Resilient floors are made of more flexible material than non-resilient floors
  - c. Non-resilient floors require finishing and resilient floors do not
  - d. Resilient floors are made of stone and non-resilient floors are made of other materials like wood fiber or rubber
3. What is dwell or wet time?
  - a. The time it takes to clean a discharged patient room
  - b. The amount of time that a disinfectant must remain wet on a surface to kill pathogens
  - c. The time someone can spend in the break room
4. Spray bottles are less safe than pour bottles due to increased risk of breathing in chemicals as they are sprayed into the air.
  - a. True
  - b. False
5. When removing soiled linens from a patient room, which set of precautions should you observe?
  - a. Standard precautions
  - b. No precautions need to be considered
6. Which of these items should be disposed of in a red bin?
  - a. Anything relating to chemotherapy
  - b. Food waste
  - c. Pills
  - d. Blood-saturated gauze

7. What is the first thing you should do when you arrive at an occupied patient room to clean?
  - a. Go into the room and ask if the patient is contagious
  - b. Remove all waste
  - c. Check for a door sign
  - d. Remove soiled linen
8. Which of these are cleaning techniques that can prevent the spread of infection?
  - a. Clean top to bottom
  - b. Move from clean to dirty
  - c. Use a task checklist
  - d. All of the above
9. What type of knot is best used to tie off trash?
  - a. A goose neck knot
  - b. A bunny ears knot
10. Which of these is not a best practice when finishing up a floor care procedure?
  - a. Leaving wet floor signs in place until the next day
  - b. Cleaning and disinfecting any equipment
  - c. Cleaning up any pads or brushes according to the procedure for your facility
  - d. Disposing of any dust and dirt

